I do not wish to be enrolled in COM 695.

Statement of Intent:

I intend to follow the M.S. thesis track which requires completing a thesis paper followed by an oral defense, according to the guidelines established by the Graduate School, the Department of Communication, and my M.S. committee. I have spoken with a faculty member who has agreed to be my Committee Chair, and I will work with that person to establish a time-line for project development and completion.
